

Blythe Mayor, Councilmembers Endorse Benoit For Supervisor

The Benoit for Supervisor campaign continues to build and attract significant local support and is proud to announce the endorsement of four members of the Blythe City Council: Mayor Joey DeConinck, Vice Mayor Carie Covell, and Councilmembers Sam Patel and Oscar Galvan. Joining the current Blythe Councilmembers in support of Benoit is Former Mayor Robert Crain.

“Since his appointment to Supervisor, John has visited Blythe at least once per month to gain a full understanding of issues involving our plans for solar development, the airport, agriculture, and water. His visibility, responsiveness and accessibility are valuable traits that will ensure that Blythe residents have the representation they need in Riverside,” stated Mayor Joey DeConinck.

“Located 175 miles away from the county seat in Riverside, the City of Blythe and the surrounding Palo Verde Valley deserve their fair share of representation,” said Supervisor John J. Benoit. “I hope to build on our already-strong local relationships to serve Palo Verde Valley residents on a county level.”

With the Blythe endorsements, the Benoit for Supervisor campaign is proud to announce the overwhelming support from the Fourth District’s elected City Councilmembers, a growing list that includes: the entire City Councils of Indian Wells, La Quinta, Palm Desert and Rancho Mirage, Four Indio City Councilmembers, Three Coachella City Councilmembers, Two Cathedral City Councilmembers, and Palm Springs Councilman Lee Weigel.
