

4 of 5 Indio City Councilmembers Endorse Benoit For Supervisor

The Benoit for Supervisor campaign continues to build and attract significant local support and is proud to announce the endorsement of four of the five members of the Indio City Council: Mayor Pro Tem Ben Godfrey and Councilmembers Glenn Miller, Lupe Ramos Watson, and Melanie Fesmire.

“I am proud to have earned high support among Indio’s city leaders,” said Fourth District Supervisor John J. Benoit. “Having spent 13 years as the Commander of Indio’s California Highway Patrol Station, I’m very familiar with their public safety concerns. In the legislature, I fought to defend local governments against unfunded mandates and the taking of their funds to balance the state’s budget. I look forward to continuing to work together for the betterment of our community.”

Supervisor Benoit was appointed to the Riverside County Board of Supervisors by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger in November, 2009 following the death of Supervisor Roy Wilson. Prior to his appointment, Benoit served in the State Assembly and Senate, on the Desert Sands School Board, and 29 years on the Highway Patrol, retiring in 2001 after 13 years as the Commander of the Indio Station.

The Indio City Councilmembers join a growing list of local government leaders endorsing Benoit for Supervisor supporters including: the entire City Councils of La Quinta and Rancho Mirage, Riverside County Sheriff Stan Sniff, Retired Undersheriff and State Senator Robert Presley, and Former Sheriffs Cois Byrd, Larry Smith.
